This image shows the ukulele tablature for the song 'Hotel California'. The score is divided into three main sections: Verse, Chorus, and Bridge (labeled '1.' and '2.').

- Verse: Starts with a Dm chord. The tablature shows a repeating pattern of eighth-note chords (Dm, G, A, A) followed by a sixteenth-note chord (G).
- Chorus: Starts with a B<sub>b</sub> chord. The tablature shows a repeating pattern of eighth-note chords (B<sub>b</sub>, F, A, A) followed by a sixteenth-note chord (F).
- Bridge: The first part (labeled '1.') starts with a Gm chord. The tablature shows a repeating pattern of eighth-note chords (Gm, A, A) followed by a sixteenth-note chord (A). The second part (labeled '2.') starts with an A chord. The tablature shows a repeating pattern of eighth-note chords (A, Dm, Dm) followed by a sixteenth-note chord (Dm).

The score includes a 'D.C.' (Da Capo) instruction, which means to return to the beginning of the section and play it again.
